1. This action for injunctive and declaratory relief and nominal damages challenges the unlawful interference by state officers and their agents with Sukhjinder S. Basra's practice of his religion. This Court has subject matter jurisdiction pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §§ 1331 and 1343, because the cause of action asserted arises under federal law, namely 42 U.S.C. § 2000cc-1.

2. Venue is proper in this Court pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1391, because a substantial part of the events or omissions giving rise to the claims at issue occurred in this District.

INTRODUCTORY STATEMENT

3. Plaintiff Sukhjinder S. Basra, an inmate at the California Men's Colony Correctional Facility ("CMC") in San Luis Obispo, California, brings this action to compel Matthew Cate, Secretary of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation (the "CDCR"), and Terri Gonzalez, Warden of the CMC, and their agents to cease their unlawful interference with his practice of religion. Mr. Basra practices Sikhism and maintains his hair and beard uncut and unshaved pursuant to sincerely held religious beliefs. A fundamental requirement of the Sikh religion is that practitioners maintain unshorn hair (Kesh) on their bodies, a requirement that includes facial hair. This mandatory article of faith signifies respect for the will of God.

4. Mr. Basra believes that cutting his hair or beard is a violation of his Sikh religious beliefs. Historically, some followers of Sikhism have been willing to be punished by death rather than cut their hair or shave.

5. Mr. Basra's maintenance of his uncut beard violates a CDCR grooming policy, codified at 15 California Code of Regulations § 3062(h) (the "Grooming Policy"), which prohibits facial hair longer than one-half inch, and contains no religious exemption. As a consequence of Mr. Basra's adherence to his religious beliefs, he has faced disciplinary sanctions and exclusion from prison programs and

1 activities, including 40 hours of extra work duty, 10 days confinement to quarters with 2 no bedside visitors, and the loss of 30 days of good time credits, in violation of his
3 rights under the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act ("RLUIPA"),
4 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000cc-2000cc-5. So central is the maintenance of unshorn hair to Mr.
5 Basra's religious beliefs that he has endured the deprivation of privileges and become 6 subject to longer confinement in prison rather than comply with the Grooming Policy.

7 6. Mr. Basra seeks preliminary and permanent injunctive relief barring 8 Defendants from enforcing the Grooming Policy against him, and compelling them to 9 lift all disciplinary sanctions that have been imposed upon him as a direct 10 consequence of his non-compliance with the policy, and requiring Defendants to 11 expunge his record of any reference to his having engaged in violations of the 12 Grooming Policy. He further seeks a declaration from this Court that Defendants'
13 enforcement of the Grooming Policy against him violates his rights under RLUIPA,
14 and nominal damages against defendant Gonzalez.

15 THE PARTIES

16 7. Plaintiff Basra is an inmate at CMC in San Luis Obispo, California. He is 17 a Canadian citizen who has practiced the Sikh faith his entire life. Mr. Basra has 18 numerous male family members who similarly practice Sikhism, including adhering to 19 the requirement of keeping Kesh by not shaving their beards or cutting their hair.

20 8. Defendant Matthew Cate is the Secretary of the CDCR and is sued in his 21 official capacity. Secretary Cate is charged by statute with the supervision and 22 management of CDC and its facilities and the enforcement of its policies, including 23 the Grooming Policy. Upon information and belief, CDCR receives federal financial 24 assistance.

25 9. Defendant Terri Gonzalez is the warden of the CMC and is sued in her
26 official and individual capacities. Warden Gonzalez is responsible for the enforcement
27 of CDCR policies, including the Grooming Policy, at CMC.

FACTUAL BACKGROUND

A. Plaintiff's Incarceration

10. Mr. Basra was originally held at the Pleasant Valley State Prison (the "PVSP"). After one year of discipline-free incarceration at PVSP, the CDCR transferred Mr. Basra to the CMC on or about February 26, 2010. At the CMC, Mr. Basra is kept in an unlocked, 90-person dormitory room, and has more extensive privileges than when he was held in PVSP, including having additional yard time and no longer living in a 2-man jail cell.

11. The ability to retain his privileges at the CMC, and to not be transferred to a more restrictive confinement either at the CMC or another prison in the CDCR system, depends largely upon Mr. Basra's continued good behavior and lack of CDCR discipline. Each time that Mr. Basra is disciplined, for any reason, he receives a number of "points." Once the total points reach a certain number, Mr. Basra's status will change, and he will be transferred out of his current CMC assignment, where he is held under minimum security.

B. Plaintiff Basra Practices Sikhism and Maintains His Hair and Beard Uncut

12. Plaintiff Basra practices Sikhism and maintains his hair and beard uncut and unshaved pursuant to sincerely held religious beliefs. A fundamental requirement of the Sikh religion is that practitioners maintain unshorn hair (Kesh) on their bodies, a requirement that includes facial hair.

13. According to the Sikh faith, cutting one's hair or beard is a grave violation of the Sikh code of conduct. Historically, some followers of Sikhism have been willing to be punished by death rather than cut their hair or shave. The practice of maintaining unshorn hair signifies respect for the will of God and is a fundamental requirement of the Sikh religion. It is therefore forbidden for Sikhs to cut their hair without violating the requirements of their religion.

1 C. CDCR's Grooming Policy

2 14. The Grooming Policy, in pertinent part, provides as follows:

3 Facial hair, including short beards, mustaches, and sideburns are 4 permitted for male inmates and shall not extend more than one-half inch
5 in length outward from the face.

6 15 CCR § 3062(h).

7 15. Pursuant to Section 3062, an inmate who fails to comply with the 8 Grooming Policy may be deemed a "program failure" and may be subject to 9 "progressive discipline and classification committee review for appropriate housing
10 and program placement." 15 CCR § 3062(m).

11 16. A "program failure" is defined as:

12 [A]ny inmate who generates a significant disciplinary history within the 13 last 180 days from the current date. A guilty finding for two serious
14 Rules Violation Reports or one serious and two administrative Rules
15 Violation Reports within that 180 day time period is reasonable evidence
16 of a significant disciplinary history and may be considered a program 17 failure.

18 15 CCR § 3000.

19 D. Defendants' Unlawful Actions

20 17. While Mr. Basra was incarcerated in a more restrictive setting at PVSP,
21 and in the initial states of his confinement at CMC, the CDCR never warned Mr. Basra 22 that he could not keep his beard or that he was violating any law or policy by 23 maintaining his uncut beard. The only time CDCR employees ever made any effort to 24 inspect Mr. Basra's beard was when he was processed at CDCR's inmate reception
25 center, where he was asked to part his beards with his hands. Since then, and to the date
26 of this Complaint, no CMC employee has ever searched Mr. Basra's beard, run a metal 27 detector wand over his beard, asked him to part or run his fingers through his beard, or 28 accused Mr. Basra of hiding any contraband in his beard. Even when the prison guards 29 performed periodic dormitory-wide searches on all inmates, including body searches and 30 inspections, no guard has ever felt it necessary to physically manipulate Mr. Basra's
31 beard, run a metal detector wand over his beard, or ask him to part or run his fingers

1 through his beard, for any reason.

2 18. Nevertheless, beginning in March 2010, the CDCR began to persecute Mr.
3 Basra for retaining his beard. Since that time, Defendants have subjected Plaintiff Basra
4 to punishment, including a loss of privileges and several disciplinary proceedings, as a
5 direct consequence of their enforcement of the Grooming Policy.

6 19. On April 3, 2010, Mr. Basra was issued a Rules Violation Report (RVR),
7 log# CMC-W-U4-10- 03-0030, for violating the California Code of Regulations, CCR
8 §3062 (h), "Grooming Standards," for the specific act of "Facial Hair Longer Than 1/2
9 inch," an Administrative Offense. In the charge, the Reporting Employee (RE),
10 Correctional Officer R. Stenhouse, documented that on March 29, 2010, he observed 11 Mr. Basra to be out of compliance with CDCR Grooming Standards, specifically having 12 facial hair longer than 1/2 inch. The RVR was heard by Unit 4 Program Sergeant C. D.
13 Burkhammer on April 5, 2010. At the administrative hearing, Mr. Basra defended 14 himself based on the fact that he grows his beard long due to his religious beliefs and 15 that CDCR grooming standards violate Mr. Basra's religious beliefs. Mr. Basra was 16 found "Guilty" of the charge, assessed 40 hours of extra duty, counseled and 17 reprimanded. Mr. Basra appealed the charge (CMC Appeal Log # CMC-W-10-00743), 18 and then pursued his appeal through all three levels of administrative review. All of his 19 appeals were denied and, on July 19, 2010, the Inmate Appeals Branch informed Mr.
20 Basra that he had exhausted his administrative remedies.

21 20. On April 30, 2010, Mr. Basra was issued a second RVR, log# CMC-W-
22 U4-10-04-0022, for violating the California Code of Regulations CCR§ 3062 (h), 23 "Grooming Standards," for the specific act of "Facial Hair Longer Than 1/2 inch," an 24 Administrative Offense. In the charge, the RE, Correctional Sergeant R. W. Haislip,
25 documented that on April 24, 2010, he observed Mr. Basra to be out of compliance
26 with CDCR Grooming Standards, specifically having facial hair longer than 1/2 inch.
27 The RVR was heard by Unit 4 Program Sergeant C. D. Burkhammer (HO), on May 3, 28

1 2010. Mr. Basra's defense was based on the fact that he grows his beard long due to
 2 his religious beliefs and that CDCR grooming standards violate his religious beliefs.
 3 Mr. Basra was found "Guilty" of the charge, assessed 10 hours of Extra Duty,
 4 suspended pending 30 days disciplinary free conduct, counseled and reprimanded. Mr.
 5 Basra appealed the charge, CMC Appeal Log # CMC-E-10-00962. Mr. Basra pursued
 6 his appeal through all three levels of administrative review. All of his appeals were 7 denied and, on July 19, 2010, the Inmate Appeals Branch informed Mr. Basra that he 8 had exhausted his administrative remedies.

9 21. On June 28, 2010, Mr. Basra was issued a third RVR, log# CMC-W-U4-
 10 10-04-0002, for violating the California Code of Regulations CCR§ 3062 (h), 11 "Grooming Standards," for the specific act of "Facial Hair Longer Than 1/2 inch," an 12 Administrative Offense. In the charge, the RE, Correctional Officer D. Van Nostran, 13 documented that on June 28, 2010, he had observed Mr. Basra to be out of compliance
 14 with CDCR Grooming Standards, specifically having facial hair longer than 1/2 inch.
 15 On July 10, 2010, the RVR was heard by Senior Hearing Officer Lieutenant J.C.
 16 Steck (SHO). Mr. Basra's defense was based on the fact that he grows his beard long 17 due to his religious beliefs and that CDCR grooming standards violate his religious 18 beliefs. Mr. Basra was found "Guilty" of the charge, assessed 40 hours of extra duty, 19 received a 30 day Work Time Credit Loss, 10 days confinement to quarters,¹ and 20 referral to program review for possible determination of a program failure. Mr. Basra 21 appealed the charge, CMC Appeal Log # CMC-W-10-01500. Mr. Basra pursued his 22 appeal through all three levels of administrative review. More than 60 working days
 23 have passed since the CDCR Appeals Chief received Mr. Basra's third level appeal, 24 and Mr. Basra has therefore exhausted his administrative remedies.

25 22. Mr. Basra served and completed all of the prescribed punishment for the 26

27 ¹ Confinement to quarters means Mr. Basra must stay in his bunk and can only leave to eat, 28 use the rest room, and for medical attention. He also loses his rights to visitation, phone calls, yard access, day room, canteen, quarterly packages and accrual of excused time off.

1 three alleged "offenses," and his good time work credits have been restored.

2 23. The offense and punishment records continue to blot Mr. Basra's
3 otherwise exemplary prison record. If not for being disciplined for his religious 4 beliefs, Mr. Basra would have a model record in prison and would be entitled to all 5 benefits granted to prisoners at his security level.

6 24. On July 19, 2010, Mr. Basra submitted to Defendant Gonzalez a request
7 for exemption (the "Exemption Request"), asking for permission to leave his beard
8 uncut in accordance with his religious beliefs, and to avoid further discipline. In a 9 letter dated July 28, 2010, the CDCR denied Mr. Basra's request, stating in pertinent 10 part:

11 For clarification, you are not being discriminated against, as you allude to 12 in your letter....You are being treated the same as the other inmates at CMC.

13 You may have a beard, but you must keep it trimmed to no more than 14 one-half inch in length. There is no provision in the CCR, Title 15 for the Warden to exempt the grooming standards.

15 25. As a result of the Grooming Policy, Mr. Basra has suffered and likely 16 will continue to suffer disciplinary sanctions, including but not limited to the 17 following: (1) loss of visitation rights; (2) extra duties; (3) loss of assignment to 18 particular duties; (4); extra restrictions or confinement; and (5) loss of Work Time
19 Credit or risk of loss of credits in the future.

20 E. Warsoldier Decision

21 26. Mr. Basra's plight is perplexing in light of the 9th Circuit decision in 22 Warsoldier v. Woodford, 418 F.3d 989 (9th Cir. 2005), in which the Court concluded
23 that the plaintiff had demonstrated a likelihood of success on the merits of his claim
24 that California's grooming policy prohibiting long hair violated RLUIPA, 42 U.S.C. §
25 2000cc-1. Former 15 CCR § 3062(e) limited hair length to 3 inches. Mr. Warsoldier, 26 a Native American who kept his hair long on account of his religious beliefs, was 27 disciplined by the CDCR for violations of the grooming policy. As a direct result of 28

1 the Warsoldier case, California revised the regulation to permit "any length" of hair.
 2 CCR § 3062(e).

3 27. California did not change CCR § 3062(h) following the decision in the 4 Warsoldier case. Yet there is no explanation as to why Mr. Basra should be entitled 5 to less protection under RLUIPA for his beard than Mr. Warsoldier was entitled to for 6 his hair.

7 REQUISITES FOR RELIEF

8 28. By reason of the factual allegations set forth above, an actual controversy
 9 has arisen and now exists between Plaintiff and Defendants. Mr. Basra contends that 10 the Grooming Policy, as applied to him, violates RLUIPA, 42 U.S.C. § 2000cc-1.
 11 Defendants are charged with enforcing the Grooming Policy, and have done so 12 repeatedly even though it infringes upon Mr. Basra's right to practice his religious 13 beliefs freely. A declaration from this Court that the challenged provision violates Mr.
 14 Basra's rights is therefore necessary and appropriate.

15 29. Defendants' enforcement of the Grooming Policy against Mr. Basra has 16 caused and will continue to cause him irreparable harm, including but not limited to 17 the violation of his rights under RLUIPA. Plaintiff Basra has no plain, adequate, or 18 complete remedy at law to address the wrongs described herein. Mr. Basra therefore 19 seeks injunctive relief restraining Defendants from unlawfully enforcing the 20 Grooming Policy against him.

21 CLAIM FOR RELIEF

22 (Violation of the Religious Land Use and Institutionalized Persons Act)

23 42 U.S.C. § 2000cc-1

24 30. Plaintiff Basra incorporates paragraphs 1 through 29 of this Complaint as 25 if fully set forth herein.

26 31. RLUIPA applies to any program or activity that receives federal financial 27 assistance. Upon information and belief, the CDCR receives federal financial

1 assistance.

2 32. The Grooming Policy substantially burdens Mr. Basra's exercise of 3 religion by compelling him to choose between incurring serious disciplinary sanctions
4 and violating a fundamental tenet of his faith.

5 33. The Grooming Policy is not the least restrictive means of furthering any 6 compelling government interest.

7 34. The Grooming Policy's requirement that facial hair shall extend no
8 longer than one-half inch, as applied to Plaintiff Basra, violates RLUIPA, 42 U.S.C. § 9 2000cc-1.

10 PRAYER FOR RELIEF

11 WHEREFORE, Plaintiff respectfully requests that this Court enter judgment in 12 his favor:

13 a. Declaring that the Grooming Policy's requirement that facial hair shall 14 extend no longer than one-half inch, set forth in 15 California Code of Regulations §
15 3062(h), as applied to Plaintiff, unlawfully burdens Plaintiff's right to practice his 16 religion in violation of RLUIPA, 42 U.S.C. § 2000cc-1;

17 b. Enjoining Defendants from enforcing the Grooming Policy's facial hair-
18 length restrictions against Plaintiff;

19 c. Compelling Defendants to remove and expunge from his record all 20 disciplinary sanctions that Defendants and their agents have imposed upon Plaintiff as 21 a consequence of his non-compliance with the Grooming Policy;

22 d. Awarding Plaintiff nominal damages;

23 e. Awarding Plaintiff his expenses, costs, fees, and other disbursements
24 associated with the filing and maintenance of this' action, including reasonable 25 attorneys' fees pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1988; and 26 f. Awarding such other equitable and further relief as the Court deems just 27 and proper.
